

would gull the people with the notion, that it is more probable that specie has risen in its value, than that their imperishable paper currency has depreciated. As a proof that the paper has depreciated, however, it is only necessary to call the readers' attention to the simple fact, that a dollar in gold or silver, will purchase no more of the necessities of life than before the suspension of specie payments—but it will purchase more bank paper than it would before that time.

Laughable Sight.—Two men, frothing at the mouth, in a violent passion with one another—each daring the other to fight, and neither having the courage to strike.

2. A man with a label on his back, joining in a lull at the expense of another who is in the same situation.

3. A man with his arms in the legs of his pantaloons, and his head in his breeches, pocket looking out of the window at midnight and crying fire!

4. A clergyman reading over, in a strange pulpit, all the old notes for prayers that had been deposited for a year past, which some rogue had placed before him for a joke.

5. A man starting and falling over in his chair, from supposing that some bystander was going to give him a trip.

6. An individual squandering all the bank notes he has in his possession, for articles he does not need to purchase, from the idea that they will soon be good for nothing.

7. A greenhorn from the country, full of swagger and bluster, and exposing his ignorance by the very means he uses for making himself appear something more than common.

8. A greenhorn from the city, blustering among the country people, trying to display his knowledge of the world by telling a great deal more than he knows.

9. A colored gallant, and his coal-black rose, tripping along the street, with all the airs of a city belle and a French dancing master.

10. One of the old school of stentorian choristers, expanding his nostrils, and pitching a psalm tune.

11. A superannuated couple, grinning with their gums, and making love with all the enthusiasm and gallantry of youth.

12. A little pigmy looking up to a great seven-footer, and pouring out upon him a whole volley of blackguardism, while the latter is obliged to hear it all in good humor, as he would from a woman, because he is ashamed to strike him.

Bowing.—“If you meet a lady of your acquaintance in the street, it is her part to notice you first, unless indeed you are very intimate. The reason is, if you bow to a lady first, she may not choose to acknowledge you, and there is no remedy; but if she bow to you, as a gentleman cannot cut her.”

We think the adoption of such a custom would frequently place a lady in very embarrassing circumstances, and we do not approve of it. Now, if a gentleman bows to a lady in the street, he considers it nothing more than common civility, if she return it. But were he to receive a pleasant salutation from a highly agreeable young lady, as a gentleman offering of courtesy, he would immediately fancy that she was in love with him, and he quite melancholy from the fear of being under the necessity of breaking her heart, if he has happened to have mortgaged his to another. The fact is, that nine out of ten of all the gentlemen loafsers you meet in the streets under forty years of age, are fully persuaded that they may have their choice among all the pretty girls of the land. Now, if it were the custom for ladies always to make the first salutation in the street upon meeting the gentlemen, this last description of beings would have their self conceit raised up to an elevation which would render them truly ridiculous. The ladies would be too polite to avoid bowing to any person of their acquaintance, who was clad in decent broadcloth, and did not wear a long beard, and the consequence would be that half the coxcombs in the city would fancy every pretty girl of their acquaintance deeply in love with them. Hence, in order to preserve our gentlemen loafers from making themselves ridiculous, we hope that the custom recommended in the paragraph above quoted, will not be adopted.

Dr Chabert, the great fire king has got married—fairly crawled into the oven of matrimony. The New York Herald says—

“This bridal ceremony has occasioned a greater sensation in New York, than the suspension of specie payments. The happy bride is the daughter of the late Bishop Provost. She is connected on both male and female side, with all our old noblesse. The Clintons, the Goldmans, the Stuyvesants, the Livingstons, the Rapeljeys, and all the old Dutch, English and Scotch settlers, back to the colonial times, are counted among her ancestry and relations. By her former husband the eccentric George Rapelje, Esq., she was left a dowry of $20,000 per annum. After his lamented death, Count di Rocca, a celebrated Italian nobleman, set up pretensions to her hand and heart—the gallant and polished Doctor Julian Xavier Chabert, king of fire, and the king of hearts, however, soon carried off the prize. The Italian could not survive the defeat—so he very quickly blew out his brains one morning before breakfast. The field being now clear the Doctor renewed his suit, routed all competitors, and has carried off the lady in the face of all the whole gaping world.”

They have had a great gala-day at Baltimore in consequence of the visit of a military company from Washington. The Baltimoreans gave their military visitors a grand dinner on the 5th, at which we are glad to see that an important branch of the U. S. Service was properly remembered in the following toast—the marines have not usually received that notice from the public which they merit—

“The U. S. Marine Corps. Regulars in honorable service; volunteers in all where dangers thicken, and difficulties are to be encountered.”

And an Sea we've travelled over.”

Laborers Wanted.—We call the attention of the unemployed laborers of this city to the following notice:—

Illinois and Michigan Canal.—Contracts to the amount of about $1,000,000, were made by the Commissioners on Saturday last, and about $60,000 less than the estimated price. Laborers to almost any number can now find employment on the different sections of the line, and receive high prices. Several thousands are wanted immediately.

“Barrett has grown three inches since he left this country,” writes a friend who saw him in New York on Monday, “but is hale and hearty as ever.” Mr and Mrs Macler, and Hamilton came over with him.

Cock's Arena. (Lion Theatre) is conducted in excellent style—the performances are novel, pleasant and ingenious. He should come down to half price, these hard times, and then his boxes would be filled every evening.

Mr Hewitt, the colored tragic hero, has an engagement at Sing Sing—he secured it by stealing from a dwelling house in New York.

A mob burnt down a man's house in “Saturdays, N. Y. the other day, because they did not like the manner in which he purchased it!”

The New York papers have started the story again that Mrs Wood, the vocalist, will visit this country in September, but we don't believe it.

Never ask an editor what the news are, but tell him all you know.

Bunkerhill! See the notice.

THE SUFFERERS IN BROAD STREET.

At a meeting of gentlemen held at the Office of the Visitors of the Poor, on Monday, June 12th, at 4 o'clock P. M., to consider what measures should be taken for the relief of the sufferers by the riot on Sunday last.

On motion of SAMUEL DORR, MOSES GRANT was chosen Chairman, and ARTEMAS SIMONDS, Secretary.

After some conversation a Committee was chosen to examine the cases of suffering which had occurred and report at an adjourned meeting.

At an adjourned meeting on Tuesday, 5 P. M., 13th Inst., the report was presented by the Committee.

REPORT.

The Committee appointed at a meeting of citizens, held June 12th, 1837, at the Office of the Visitors of the Poor, to ascertain the amount of the loss in furniture, clothing, &c. occasioned by the late riot in Broad street, and to examine the cases of suffering which had occurred consequent upon the same, make the following report:—

Immediately after the adjournment of that meeting, we attended at various places and personally entered and examined all the houses which had been attacked, and made as many inquiries as possible of the inmates and of others who knew them, and we believe the following statement to be correct:—

Total amount of loss estimated at over $2000. It will be understood, that in the above statement we do not include the injury done the various buildings by the breaking of doors and windows. These losses must be very heavy and will fall upon the owners of the houses.

In regard to great numbers of suffering we can state that they are numerous. Twenty-nine families have been more or less afflicted by this latest attack upon their homes. There are, at least, one hundred and twenty-two individuals composing these families, twenty-nine of whom are women or children, and the greater part of these have been deprived of all clothing, and have no means of procuring more. We feel it to be our duty to mention some of the most flagrant cases which have fallen under our notice.

A very worthy and unassuming citizen, was sitting in his chamber, engaged in reading, when the noise of the rioters drew him to the window. He had just time to run down stairs and to bolt the door, when it was assailed and broken open. Every thing in that house is now in ruins. Not a single article escaped, for so determined upon destruction were the rioters, that even a rocking-stone was thrown down and broken in pieces. Every bed in the house was cut open and the contents thrown into the streets. The occupants of the rooms lost over $200 in cash, the rioters seizing the money.

Another person, who likewise had taken no part in the disturbance, and had his own house unharmed, lost his stock valued at $500, together with nearly $500 in cash, the greater part of which was in specie, and all his furniture. This man was honest and aged, and while defending his property, was seized and dragged to prison, as a rioter. After remaining there twenty-four hours, he was discharged. It seemed to us, at that time, a kind of vindictiveness was displayed which we could hardly have supposed to have existed in this community had not the proofs of it been before our eyes. Clothing in many instances, found in the streets, was in a state of ruin, and many articles, such as chairs, tables, &c. had been thrown into one confused mass. There was likewise, as we have already stated, a disposition on the part of the rioters to take money. An honest laborer was robbed of $45 which he kept in a box at the bottom of many years' earnings. As a last example of the unfeelingness of the rioters, we further state that a tailor, his wife and child, were deprived literally of every thing, the husband being in Charleston during the whole of the riot. Not merely was their clothing destroyed, but likewise the dresses belonging to his employers were wantonly torn up.

In conclusion, we feel it to be our solemn duty to state that the great majority of the sufferers knew nothing about the funeral which had taken place, or of the fact that any disturbance had arisen between any classes of our citizens, until a very late moment before their own dwellings were attacked.

In view of the immediate suffering consequent upon this destruction of property, we would recommend the appointment of a committee of twenty, whose duty shall be to solicit donations of money, clothing, furniture, &c.

All which is respectfully submitted,

H. I. Fowitch, Joseph E. Lee, W. B. Bradford, G. H. Snelling, H. B. Greene, Committee.

The meeting was then addressed by Messrs Samuel May, John C. Gray, W. W. Stone, John D. Williams, G. H. Snelling and others.

On motion of Mr Gray, the report, after some modifications, was unanimously adopted. It was voted that the report with the proceedings of the meeting be published.

Agreeably to the recommendation of the report, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to solicit subscriptions, &c.

Alfred Lawrence, Henry Rogers, N. G. Snelling, J. H. Rogers, W. W. Stone, Thomas A. Dexter, Benjamin Howard, Isaac Newton, H. I. Fowitch, Samuel Cutler, James Boyd, H. B. C. Greene, Joseph E. Lee, W. B. Bradford.

Any information in regard to clothing, may be left at the office of the Visitors of the Poor, under the Savings Bank, or with either of the Committee.

June 14th.

N. B. The Committee are requested to meet this day at 5 P. M. at the office under the Savings Bank.

The Lancers made a splendid appearance yesterday, and attracted the attention of multitudes of citizens who were warm in the expression of their admiration. At half past two P. M. the corps was inspected on the Common by Brigadier Major S. A. ALLEN, and reviewed by Brigadier General Ames; after which a procession was formed at the State House, consisting of the Governor and his Aids in an elegant barouche, drawn by four spanking grays, and the Mayor and Aldermen, and other invited guests in their carriages, under the escort of the Lancers; the procession moved through the principal streets of the city to Concert Hall, where the whole company sat down to an elegant and sumptuous dinner prepared for the occasion. The pleasures of the table were enhanced by the free expression of patriotic sentiments in toasts and speeches, and the whole fete passed off in the most agreeable manner. Among the gentlemen who addressed the company at length, were the Governor, the Mayor, the Adjutant General, Col. Thomas and Lt. Col. R. C. Winthrop.

Charles Hood, Esq. is appointed a Commissioner for the State of Massachusetts, by his Excellency the Governor of Maine, to take acknowledgments and proof of the execution of any deed, mortgage, or other conveyances of lands in that state, and of contracts, letters of Attorney, or any other writing under Seal, to be used or recorded in that State.

What will the Ten Cent Rebellionists say now? Mr Webster, in his speech at Cincinnati on the 3d inst., justified the administration in requiring specie payments, since the banks have ceased to redeem their notes in specie.

A law has passed the legislature of Connecticut suspending the “Small Bill law” till July 1st, 1838. The banks are now permitted to issue small notes, but must redeem them in specie under pain of forfeiting their charters.

The Ruins of “Palmyra.”—One of the unfortunate inmates of a house of ill-fame, recently committed to the New York Penitentiary, gave as her name, “The ruins of Palmyra.”

“He could not save his Bacon.”—The smoke house of Mr David Anson, at Zanesville, Ohio, was recently destroyed by fire, together with eight thousand pounds of bacon.

It is said that Mr Virgil Maxcy, Solicitor of the United States Treasury at Washington, is to receive a diplomatic mission at Belgium.

Capt Marryatt arrived in town on Monday. As a matter of courtesy to a stranger, we shall allow him to write for the Post while he is here.

The Lafayette Guards, under the command of Capt E. D. Cassell, will parade this day, and dine at the Lafayette Hotel, accompanied by the Boston Brigade Band.

“My God! you uncommon roaring falls them is!” said a cockney on a visit to Niagara.

They have got the “African Glen” in New York, which all the Gothamites are creeping into.

A curious correspondence is on our First Page.

POLICE COURT.

The Examination of the Broad Street Rioters—Continued.—Operations commenced yesterday morning by including MARK ADAMS, an American, in the complaint, and he gave bail for his appearance forthwith, and from day to day till the examination is terminated.

Benjamin Abrams—merchant—knew Coffee to be a civil and inoffensive man—did not see the riot—assisted to save Coffee and George Adams, the Americans—the prisoners were so much covered with blood, that he could not identify them by their looks. Saw M'Solly taken off in a hand-cart—he appeared to be insensible—at every jolt of the cart the blood spouted out behind several inches from a hole in his head, while he was shielding himself with one arm. I saw a crowd engaged in fighting.

Calix McClellan—rigger—was in the Bethel Church—when the riot broke out, he went to the door, and the people thought it was an alarm of fire—I went directly down to Broad street, and found myself all at once in a mob, and what was the matter—several persons were injured at me with stones and clubs, and there was danger. Nelson, replied that he had better not go into the row, as they were armed with stones and clubs, and there was danger. Nelson, replied that he had better not go into the row, as they were armed with stones and clubs, and there was danger. Nelson, replied that he had better not go into the row, as they were armed with stones and clubs, and there was danger.

Matthews—constable—saw Barney Farren dragged out of the mob—they were about him—did not see him engaged—after I got him into a safe place, a man came up behind him and hit him a violent blow on the back of his head with a club and begged for his life. Before Welsh went to the Broad street riot, I saw him in Ann street, where he had a knock-down with a sailor. Mr Carley was also hand d out, very badly used.

E. Shute, Jr.—constable—testified to the same facts as Mr Ellis.

Co. T. C. Amory—I heard the alarm bell ring while in church, about 4 o'clock—went out—saw No 9 coming up Bedford street—looked back, and ran down Summer street—Engine was on left side going down—went round the corner, and saw a body of men, and a crowd of people, and I did not know that it was a funeral. At the corner, seeing no fire either South or North I left the Engine, and walked on the sidewalk—the Engine slowed over very angry to the side of the rear of the procession—saw a man fall, and first thought the Engine had run against some one, but it was one of the engines—he got up again before I came up to him, and passed to the other side of the Engine, so that he was next to the procession. By the time that I got up to where he fell, there was fighting all round. I tried to find out what was the matter, and the Irish appeared to retreat a little North. While asking an Irishman on the sidewalk, what they were fighting about, I observed the engine running South. I turned round and observed half a dozen or more Irishmen advancing towards them, with long clubs. The engine retreated, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes the other. At one time there were two distinct fights in Broad street, and another in Purchase all going on together. No 9 and No 10 were seen to be fighting, and the Irishmen followed, and the Irishmen in turn to retreat. Both parties were rapidly reinforced, and sometimes one had the advantage and sometimes

LINE.
 ALLOWELL, OWIS-HEAD, PORT & BANGOR.
 LAND, 450 tons, Capt Coyle, and Boston. She will leave and Saturdays—and Portland on every Wednesday P. M. On oners for the Penobscot, and con-OR, 400 tons, Capt S. H. Bowe,
 Boston. Will leave Bangor
 5 o'clock A. M. and place her for Boston, the same even-Friday at 7 o'clock P. M. On Portland with passengers in for Belfast and Portland or and proceed the same night to Boston for Portland, leaving at 5 o'clock P. M. and will the next day at 8 A. M. touch She will take passengers for with the Steamer McDonough H, 300 tons, Capt Brown, will every Tuesday and Friday at place her Boston passengers on Fridays at 7 o'clock P. M. On Saturday at 8 o'clock A. M. touching each day at Bath, evening. Will leave Portland the McDonough will leave o'clock P. M. and on Wednesday for Portland and Hallowell at from Boston every night, except on Saturdays.
 Portland, $3
 Bangor, $4 prices.
 order for the route; and well fucessors.
 Steamerboat Company, foot of Ha-rated, but the wharves will be light or articles of any kind, unless, a proportion of the price, advance only to L. W. GOODRICH.
 FOR NEW YORK.
 ent for June.
 AND, Capt. Thayer.
 From New York.
 Foot of Marketfield st, N.
 Battery place, at 5 o'clock, P.
 Tuesdays, 8th and 20th.
 Thursdays, 1st, 15th, & 29th
 Saturdays, 10th and 24th.
 ETTS, Capt. Comstock.
 From New York.
 Foot of Marketfield st, N.
 Tuesdays, 13th and 27th.
 Thursdays, 6th and 22d.
 Saturdays, 3d and 17th.
 ET, Capt. Child.
 From New York.
 Foot of Marketfield st, N.
 Mondays, 12th and 26th.
 Wednesdays, 7th and 21st.
 Fridays, 2d, 16th and 30th all Road Cars for Providence and Baggage at the risk of the je E-OLD LINE.
 leaves HOBBART'S, No 36 Handery, every Morning at 3 o'clock reaches Keene at 7 P. M. Thro-ington, Concord, Aceton, Little Town, Townsend, Ashby and Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
 A new Ipswich and LeDay to Keene on Sunday, from Keene to , Hanover, Haverhill, &c, ak Montpelier to Burlington.
 Rutland and Middlebury to place leaves Hobdrie on Tuesdays, by the way of Groton
 M. place for Shirley, on Tuesdays, A. M.
 Fridays, Wednesdays and Fridays, ELLIS BROWN, Agent.
 33m
 PORCELAIN TEETH.
 -conce thanks to the citizens of he has received from them a removed his office to a more the great number of teeth he has enabled to reduce his fees at from this date. The average will be, on gold plate $3, silver 75 cents to $1, and all operations of five years. He will continuance and complete any operations. He has within the last Dentists in this city, who are ss.
 . HOUTT, No 11 Winter street, of 24 teeth to masticate with with, will be ready to supply dollars will be paid on proof workmanship.
 ja
 MATERIALS. of velvet, superfine, and 16 by . They will be sold low, to experienced workmen, either the country, at the lowest to JOSEPH BURROWS & CO. at 71 Commercial st. 11
 ID.—A one hundred dollar Bank, numbered 133, pays aving the above bill, shall be securing the same to the sub-All payments are cautioned to WILLIAM ANDRE
 if 11
 AND ENGINEERS.—
 122 State street, have just received Measuring Tapes from 50 feet to 100 feet, and the sub-is & os
 MONEY.—Providence Banks of Old Town Bank, Maine—New of St. Albans—Manchester—F Bank, Guilford—all Banks
 W. CLARK, Exchange Broker
 if
 Just received by the late arriving Cloth, GOLDEN & ADAM 2m
 as of Bate, Monkland and W ED-W. WINSLOW, & Broad assist gen lermen can be accommodated at No 1 Wendell 2p2w
 he had on a first rate city
 Rental Estate. Apply to U. J.
 MOVED VEGETABLE
 of Liverwort, very efficacious of Pulmonary complaints, as for, for sale at wholesale of No 2 India street.
 TCHES.—100 Gross Superfine candles, warranted equal to anand for sale low by TROTT & 11